Church News

Evangelist Slated At Baptist Church

Jack Holcomb, nationally known evangelist and singer, will be at the First Baptist Church, 2118 Carson street, beginning October 10 at 11 a.m., and continuing throughout October. He will be presenting the Gospel in "Sermon and Song," assisted by Lorin Whitney, organist of the Haven of Rest broadcast, who will officiate at the organ, assisted by a special song leader.

Reverend Holcomb has held evangelistic services in many places throughout the United States, and has many friends in this vicinity who will remember his ministry several years ago in the big tent that was located at Pacific Coast Highway and Vermont when he was associated with Jack Shuler. The meetings will be held nightly at 7:30, except Saturday, and Pastor C. Miles Northrup extends an invitation to everyone to avail themselves of this music and gospel ministry.

Questors Hold Potluck And Honor Hanlons

The Questors class of the First Methodist Church held their monthly social in the Fellowship Hall at the church last Friday evening, September 24. The group enjoyed the 6:30 potluck dinner hosted by Bernice and John Stoneburg, followed by a short business meeting conducted by President Marvin Hiebert.

Guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Harlowe Hanlon, who originally organized the class and were former presidents. Lew Broatch presented the Hanlons with an ice box for camping trips, and thanked them on behalf of all the members for their three years' work with the organization. They were also commended for the two years they taught Sunday school. Maurice Ranson and Harold Hayes then entertained members with pictures taken during vacation.

El Nido Board Meets

El Nido P.T.A. held its first board meeting last week at the home of Mrs. L. L. Meredith, 18312 Grivillea, at which time the program for the year was presented by Mrs. Evelyn Sexton, and Mrs. Paul Herring was appointed Founder's Day chairman.

One highlight of the meeting was a surprise baby shower for the principal and his wife, the R. Petrats.

Church Filled As New Minister Is Installed

The First Christian Church at 2930 El Dorado was filled to overflowing last Sunday at the installation of the new pastor, Rev. Harry Milton Sippel. In installing the new minister was Dr. Clifford Cole, secretary of the Church of Christ of Southern California, and editor of the Unified Informer, a southland church publication. This coming Sunday Rev. Sippel will speak at the 10:50 a.m. service on "Going Forward."

'Unreality' Is Lesson-Sermon

Spiritual understanding enables mankind to differentiate between the true and the false. This thought is emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon on "Unreality" in all Christian Science churches Sunday.

The Torrance Church of Christ, Scientist, is located at 218th and Manuel avenue, and Sunday services begin at 11 a.m.

Rally Day Set At Foursquare

Reaching for an all-time "high" in the Sunday School, the Foursquare Church, 1207 El Prado, Torrance, will observe Rally Day, October 3, in an effort to "tag" all members and friends for this special occasion.

The Sunday School hour, commencing at 9:30 a.m., will climax in a great Rally Day program presented by the children of the various departments of the Sunday School under the supervision of Mrs. Eva Murphy, general superintendent, Mrs. Irma Stanbrough, Mrs. Lela Bell and Rev. Phoebe Frey, departmental superintendents.

Carrying the theme right on into the morning worship service, the message will be "The Prescription for the Day," Rev. and Mrs. James P. Lowen, pastors, wish to especially encourage all parents to attend this service. The evening service will convene at 7:30 p.m. with an inspirational song service and special music preceding the message.

Methodist Brunch Club Social Held

The Methodist Brunch club met Tuesday morning in the newly completed basement dining room. A teaching demonstration was given by Mrs. Lyle Enger, president, and others on the teaching staff of the Methodist Church school.

Hostesses for the coffee hour were Meses. Adley Champion Roy Goree and Lester Murdock. All parents of children attending Methodist Church school are invited to attend the Brunch club.

Scott Park Meet Tonight Leathercarving Classes

Jack Henry, president of Scott Park Recreation Council, announced that the council will meet tonight, September 30, at the W. R. Allen home, 327 East 229th place. There will be a report given of the summer carnival and plans will be made for the Halloween carnival.

NEW SITE PURCHASED BY TEMPLE

Purchase of a three acre site for the erection of a Jewish community center was announced this week by Arnold Cowan, president of Temple Menorah. The site is located at Ocean and Sepulveda and construction is expected to start in six months.

The center will include a temple, nursery school, playground, and assembly room, together with adequate parking facilities. A swimming pool is also planned.

Temple Menorah is presently located at 110 S. Catalina in Redondo Beach.

Yom Kippur services are scheduled for 8:30 p.m. October 6 and 10 a.m. till sundown, October 7, Rabbi Samuel W. Chomsky, officiating.

PAINTING UNVEILED AT CHURCH

A new painting was unveiled Sunday at the Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church. The huge picture, covering eighty-four square feet, is behind the baptistry and denotes a river scene.

The remodeling of the educational building located on Narbonne and 248th street is scheduled for completion within two weeks. The parking lot north of the building has been surfaced to provide more adequate parking area, and is being equipped with flood lights in order to provide a needed recreational area.

Miss Ruby Lee Hill has been added to the church staff to serve as educational secretary.
